

WHEAT MARKET IS UNSTEADY

Realization Sales Force Prices Up And Down
With Much Regularity Today.

RECURRENCE OF YESTERDAY'S PLAY

Enormous Buysings To Cover Short Orders--Brokers Want Heavy Margins Owing To Unsettled Conditions Of Market.

[BY ASSOCIATED PRESS.]
Chicago, May 14.—Talk of wheat at a dollar and a half is heard on the streets but not in the pit. This morning's opening showed that yesterday's flurry was not merely an uplift but that there was something else back of it all. While it is not certain yet that the wheat crop loss will be as heavy as it was expected, still the government report shows many million acres less will be harvested this year than last and this will tend to raise the prices.

In the Bins.
It is estimated that there is still considerable wheat in the farmers' bins in the northwest that has not yet been moved. It will be hard to make an accurate report on this but this supposition and the realizing sales which characterized the opening of the market today brought the price of July down from 95 3/4 to 97 1/2.

Heavy Realizing.
The heavy realizing continued to depress the market and September also felt the drop, opening at 97 1/2 to 98 it touched as a low point 95 3/4 and closed at 97 1/2 to 3/4. July corn opened at 52 1/2 to 3/4, reached 51 1/2 low and closed 52 1/2. September opened 52 1/2 to 3/4, touched 52 low and closed 52 1/2 to 3/4. July oats opened 45, went to 46, then down to 44 1/2 and closed 44 1/2 to 3/4.

Market Panicky.
Pork also felt the drop, opening at $10.50, closing $10.05. Realizing sales in wheat pit caused rest of market to drop but everything seemed to point to heavy trading in cereals in futures, the shorts covering themselves over yesterday's sale. This continual forcing of sales left market somewhat uncertain.

M'GREGOR BOOM IS GROWING STEADILY

Joint Ballot Shows That His Followers Are in Dead Earnest in His Election.

[SPECIAL TO THE GAZETTE.]
Madison, Wis., May 14.—The joint convention vote on senator today gave Esch 26, Hatten 25, Stephens 31, McGreggor 23, Bird 15, and Tamme 15. McGreggor, social dem., Palmer, Frear, Hazelwood, democrat, one each. McGreggor continues to gain and it is now becoming acknowledged that the movement toward him is serious and not a temporary makeshift by members pledged to other candidates. The senate debated lightly on the best trout streams of the state, and seriously on the Wisconsin river reservoir bill, laying both matters over. The river bill is opposed on the ground that it gives valuable rights to a private corporation without compensation. The assembly killed the Aldridge, social democrat, resolution to denounce the United States supreme court for the decision in the Meyer-Haywood-Pettibone case, after Aldridge had delivered an inflammatory speech. The bill to require a tubercular test on all cattle sold caused a lively discussion in the assembly and action was deferred.

OHIO CONFERENCE WAS CALLED OFF

REPUBLICAN STATE CENTRAL COMMITTEE WILL NOT MEET.

DICK ISSUES A STATEMENT

Says Meeting was Not Called for Purpose of Ratifying Any Deal
—Leaves Harmony Question With Party.

Akron, O., May 14.—United States Senator Charles Dick, who is chairman of the Republican state central committee, Monday night issued a statement calling off the order for a conference at Columbus Wednesday of members of the state central committee, Republican members of congress, county chairmen, state officers and Republican leaders generally. The call for the conference was issued last week and gave for its object the discussion of means of reconciling clashing interests of political leaders in this state and maintaining harmony in the party. Following is Senator Dick's statement calling off Wednesday's conference:

"When, as chairman of the Ohio Republican state executive committee, I invited a conference of the state central and executive committees, of the chairmen of the Republican county executive committees, of the elective state officers, and of the Republican members of congress, to be held at Columbus, Wednesday, May 15, I then assumed entire responsibility for the call, as I now assume entire responsibility for an indefinite postponement of that meeting. It seems proper, however, that a brief explanation should be made.

No Deal to Ratify.

"The conference was called with no purpose of ratifying any deal, bargain or compromise, for there was none, but to secure party harmony and unity of purpose among the Republicans of Ohio, and to ally party strife and contention. This, it was believed, could be done by a full, frank and considerate exchange of opinion in so representative a gathering, and finally, the adoption of some public expression, voicing as nearly as might be, the ascertained sentiment of Ohio Republicans. There was no intention of assuming to do more than to recommend united action and effort among Ohio Republicans and no purpose to attempt to dictate or even endorse, or still less nominate the party choice or candidates. It was never meant to have the conference assume the functions of the state convention or encroach upon any rights or privileges of individual Republicans. Nor was it supposed that there would be any arbitrary action binding the great body of Republicans and no such action was contemplated, as a careful reading of the call will show. Certainly the conference could exercise no function beyond that of recommendation.

"The chief thought was that harmony and unity among all the Republicans of Ohio, based upon justice to every element of the party, are essential to the complete promotion of Republican principles and to insure full success to Republican candidates in all elections, local as well as general, and should be secured, if possible, without delay.

"The purpose of this meeting has been misunderstood by some and misrepresented by others, and thus it has met with some opposition and disfavor, and in other cases animosity. Therefore, having become convinced that the desired restoration of complete party harmony through unanimity of action by such a conference would be impossible at this time, I postpone the meeting indefinitely.

"CHARLES DICK." Senator Dick, according to statements of his friends, feels that he has done all possible to bring about peace and as chairman of the executive committee now leaves the matter to the party.

Snow Falls in Dakota.
St. Paul, Minn., May 14.—Grand Forks special to the Pioneer Press, says: A heavy fall of snow as far north as Minto, west to Devil's Lake and south to Fargo was about the latest straw in the discouraging wheat situation in this section. It is estimated that only about 20 per cent. of the seeding has been done in this portion of the state.

Cyclone in Kansas City, Kan.
Kansas City, Mo., May 14.—Six persons were injured, a number of frame buildings were unroofed and many windows were broken by a storm in Kansas City, Kan., Monday night, which spent its principal force in a path a hundred feet wide along Central avenue from Tenth street east to Riverview station, a distance of five blocks.

Strike Declared Off.
Philadelphia, May 13.—The strike and lockout of bricklayers and masons in this city which grew out of a dispute between the trades as to the right of granite cutters to set finished stone was declared off Monday. About 3,000 bricklayers and a total of about 25,000 men in various branches of the building trades return to work.

Town Burned; Loss Is $200,000.
St. Paul, Minn., May 14.—Word reached here early Monday morning that the business portion of Rush City had been totally destroyed by fire. The loss is estimated at $200,000.

THE COREY-GILMAN WEDDING

CEREMONY PERFORMED IN NEW YORK JUST AFTER MIDNIGHT.

The Wedding Supper Was the Most Sumptuous Affair Ever Served in the City.

New York, May 14.—In order to escape the unlucky thirteenth of the month, William Ellis Corey, president of the United States Steel corporation, and Mabelle Gilman, the former actress, were not married until after midnight Tuesday morning. The ceremony took place in the Royal suite at the Hotel Gotham, Fifth avenue and Fifty-fifth street, in the presence of a small party of friends of the contracting couple.

The ceremony was performed by Rev. J. L. Clark, pastor of the Bushwick Avenue Congregational church of Brooklyn.

Long before the theaters had poured their thousands into the night a thin line of curious people gathered about the hotel and gazed expectantly at the brilliant windows, from which flashed great bars of ochre light across Fifth avenue, in vain hopes of catching some fleeting glimpse of the wedding party.

The more venturesome braved the imposing uniformed doorman of the hotel and wandered about the office and corridors, but none successfully essayed entrance to the Royal suite. Only the few invited guests passed that carefully guarded portal. Detectives moved in and about the crowds that mingled in the hotel corridors, and all who came under suspicion were passed along the street.

The Royal suite in the Hotel Gotham is on the third floor of the Fifth avenue side, and consists of eight rooms. It is secluded. The salon and the dining rooms were decorated Monday night with hundreds of American beauty roses. The management of the hotel and those in charge of the decorations were given carte blanche, and the wedding is said to have cost $5,000. The banquet was one of the most sumptuous ever served in the city.

Mr. Corey's only gift to his bride was the Chateau Genis.

One miner had an arm broken and two strikebreakers were badly injured. About 1,000 miners, led by a drum corps, assembled at the mouth of the mine and when the strikebreakers came out the fight took place.

Wreck on Iron Mountain.
St. Louis, May 14.—A special from Murta, Ark., says fast train No. 7 on the Iron Mountain system, bound from St. Louis to Texarkana, was derailed there and Engineer Beckley, of Little Rock, was seriously injured. The engine and two mail cars left the track.

After the Entertainment.

"She has a magnificent flat," said one, "but it is badly arranged. The parlor is too far from the dining room." "The wall paper is beautiful," remarked another, "but the pictures are abominable. It is a pity to ruin beautiful walls." "She has a lot of elegantly bound books," said still another, "but I'll be willing to wager a five that none of the leaves are cut." "In other words," said the man who looks on, "she has been awfully good to us. She has taken pains to entertain us. Let us roast her."

LITTLE PROGRESS IN HAYWOOD CASE

THE EXAMINATION OF JURYMEN IS BEGUN AT BOISE

A NUMBER MAKE EXCUSES

But One Man Qualified and Seems Labeled for Peremptory Challenge
Later—Evidence of the Prosecution.

Boise, Idaho, May 14.—Only a fragment of Monday was given over to actual work in the Haywood trial, and the one step forward was the qualification of a single talesman, who seems marked for peremptory challenge later. The rest of the time went to the talesmen of the special venire and the reasons that made it impossible for them to serve the state at this time. Judge Wood called the case at two o'clock and at once gave attention to the 100 men summoned by Sheriff Hodgins in the special venire issued on Thursday last. The court asked those who had special excuses to offer to come forward and up surged a little mob of 35. They swarmed around the clerk's desk and choked up the left approach to the bench.

With tact and patience Judge Wood heard them through, and the 35 tales were not all told until 3:20 by the clock. Twenty-four of the pleaders were excused and the other 11 returned to the panel, either temporarily or permanently, leaving the total at 76.

In the hour devoted to counsels examination of talesmen, Ellsworth Lister, a young farmer, who had vainly strived to be excused, went down before an objection from the prosecution for implied bias and gave way to Walter Shaw, 29 years old, a brother of a present member of the Idaho legislature, now a farmer and formerly a meat cutter, of Seattle and Everett, Wash. Shaw qualified after an extended examination that filled the time down to adjournment but he was indefinite in many of his answers and seemed uninformed upon many matters essential in the standard grade of jurors. Shaw is generally labeled for a peremptory challenge.

Evidence of State.

"We have much evidence that is not even suspected by the other side," said Senator Borah, for the prosecution. "I am firmly convinced we will be able to prove beyond the slightest shadow of doubt that Settemberg was murdered as the result of a plot by the men named in the present indictment."

James McFarland, the Chicago Pinkerton detective who secured Harry Orchard's confession, spent several hours with the latter at the penitentiary. He declares Orchard will make a strong witness for the state. Reports that two former members of the executive committee have agreed to go on the stand to substantiate portions of Orchard's story are current here.

Young Settemberg in Court.

To the court came Julian Settemberg, son of the murdered governor, a tall, sturdy youth, strikingly like his father in face and figure. For two hours he sat with the members of the Boise bar, ten feet from the chair of the prisoner, William D. Haywood. He spoke to no one, and remained a quiet, unobtrusive spectator. He is here under subpoena as a witness, and it is expected will be among the first called.

The Haywood group was the same as on last Thursday. The prisoner sat at the inner end of the line of chairs in the rear of the defense's table. Next to him was his youngest daughter, and at her right the nurse. Next in line was the invalid wife and mother, and at her right the comely older daughter. They, too, were quiet and unobtrusive spectators of the proceedings.

STRIKE ON PANAMA CANAL.

Steam Shovel Men Ask a Big Increase in Wages.

Panama, May 14.—As a result of a strike of workers on the steam shovels only two shovels were worked Monday between Bas Obispo and Culebra. The shovel men demand $300 per month instead of their present salary of $210. It is not believed the strike will last long as there seems to be a lack of sympathy with the movement. L. M. Parke, of Detroit, Mich., was accidentally killed at Cristobal Sunday night.

Cannon Talks on Waterway.

Peoria, Ill., May 14.—Speaker Cannon, of the house of representatives, spent Monday in Peoria as the personal guest of G. W. Curtis, president of the Dime Savings bank. The speaker was entertained at a dinner at the Country Club of Peoria and in the course of a few informal remarks said that the future of the deep-waterway depends upon the practicality of the work on the Mississippi river below St. Louis. He spoke only briefly on the deep-waterway project.

Killed in Street Fight.

Ardmore, I. T., May 14.—In a street fight here Monday between Irb Foots, candidate for sheriff of Foster county, and William Ballew, Foots was shot and instantly killed and a bystander was fatally wounded. Ballew was arrested. The trouble was the culmination of a feud of long standing.

Ugliness and Beauty.

Ugliness is the penalty of neglect, and beauty is the reward of right doing, right living and right thinking.

TOD SLOANE'S ADVICE.

"Jockeys, Be Fearless or Else Don't Ride," Great Ex-Rider Says.
Tod Sloane was once the world's greatest jockey. Today he is looking for a job.

That is the whole story of a sensation—successful lad who was put down and out by high living and an attack of "big head."

But Tod has learned his lesson and now has hopes of being reinstated as a jockey. He has been trying for years to be allowed to get back into the saddle.

By TOD SLOANE.

Fear is the curse of every jockey today who has not overcome it, and most jockeys have not. Remove this curse, and the rider who has won a high position will maintain it. He will not be a star this year and a counterfitted the next. So I say to every jockey who has success within his grasp: Be fearless.

TOD SLOANE HANDING OUT A FIERCE TIP TO

If you're afraid, don't ride. Let somebody else take your place. Chase overcautious parents or guardians away from the track.

The temptations which confront a jockey are not difficult to overcome. All that is necessary is to begin with a boy who has common sense. Tell him that if he becomes a successful jockey he will have reached the highest goal for which he has set out. Fortune will be his. There are boys who are making a fortune today; although they have a lot to learn. Why doesn't Walter Miller let down two or three notches in his stirrups? If he doesn't know enough to do it himself, why do trainers hesitate to insist that he make the experiment? If it fails to work, he can resume his present style.

The seat of the American rider is superior to the old style of sitting straight in the saddle. I was laughed at when I introduced it in England. I went there in the fall of 1907. The owners and trainers did not take to my style of riding. They even refused to let me exercise their horses. I determined to show the English jockeys a thing or two. My chance came, and I made the best of it. I won twenty races out of forty-eight in my first year in England.

I put into practice the things I had learned on this side. At Newmarket, instead of guiding my mount along a path which the grass made slippery, I chose a route where the footing offered resistance. I attribute the winning of a race which was of great importance to me to the knowledge of conditions which I had studied out.

The boys who are riding in this country have poor knowledge of pace. The jockeys abroad are little better. It was pace alone which won for me on Calman at Newmarket in 1899. Flying Fox was considered well high invincible. Morny Cannon had the mount on him. Cannon permitted me to steal five lengths at the start. I slowed down, but so gradually that they did not perceive it. They also slowed down. They waited for me to run my horse off his feet and come back to them. Nearing the finish, I let Calman down with plenty of speed in reserve, and they did not discover the trick in time to stall off defeat. Any jockey who was a master of pace would have discovered that trick. Flying Fox could have beaten Calman a city block if Cannon had sent him on about his business.

I saw soon after I reached England that they were running their horses with too heavy shoes. I sent to this side for a hundred sets of racing plates, and the change worked wonders. English trainers stuck to their old notions, and it was not until two or three years ago that racing plates were generally adopted.

English-American Tennis For Women.

Mrs. Hillyard, who has held the ladies' tennis championship of England several times, has been active in arranging for a team of lady tennis players to visit the United States to compete for the International trophy offered by Mrs. John Jacob Astor. As yet no formal invitation has been received from the American tennis authorities, and until such invitation is received of course no positive announcement is possible, but it can be said on high authority that if the proper authorities issue an invitation a team of the best lady tennis players in England will invade America in hope of taking the Astor trophy across the water.

New York American Pitchers.

The New York Yankees proposed winning the pennant with six pitchers. They are Griffith, Orth, Hoge, Clarkson, Doyle and Keefe.

H. H. BLISS, Business Manager.
Subscribed and sworn to before me this 11th day of May, 1907.JENNIE L. KENDALL, Notary Public.
My commission expires Feb. 11, 1911.MUNICIPAL OWNERSHIP
Henry Clews, in an address on "Individualism versus Socialism," in the Columbia theatre, Brooklyn, Sunday, said:

"Imagine New York under municipal ownership of our public utilities. We should then have fastened upon us a more colossal and more corrupt Tammany than ever existed in Tweed's times. Graft would thrive beyond all dreams of avarice. Let us take a lesson from England in this respect, where public ownership has been tried on a larger scale and under more favorable conditions than elsewhere. In a few instances the running of street railways or city lighting plants has been successful, but exceptions do not always prove the rule, and the conditions under which these enterprises have been operated there must be taken into consideration.

"English cities are comparatively free of political corruption; and are, moreover, often served by men of high character, wealth and ability—men having a strong sense of civic duty, who deem it an honor to give their community efficient service. Unfortunately, we have not yet developed a class of this sort in the United States; perhaps in due time we shall; but, until then, the experiment of municipal ownership has usually been the financial end of the business, concerning which the public has been poorly informed. Many of these enterprises in English cities have proved unprofitable. The accounts have been juggled, and expenses that should be charged against the plant were often transferred to city accounts.

"Not a few of the English cities have so run into debt as to injure their credit and impair the sale of their securities. Already, the British taxpayer is beginning to complain about the costliness of these municipal ownership schemes, and a decided reaction against them is setting in. The London county council has launched heavily into these ventures, many of which have proved losing ventures, and some prominent experts have gone so far as to predict that London will be bankrupt before long, unless present tendencies are reversed. If municipal ownership has failed under the highly favorable conditions which exist in England, how can it succeed here?"

"Again, the English telegraph system operated by the British government does not compare with the private systems of the United States, either in efficiency or cheapness, and England with its public telephones is very far behind the United States in efficiency and cost. London does not begin to have the number of telephones per capita that New York can claim. American railroads under private ownership perform the best and cheapest service in the world."

STRONG ENDORSEMENT
"The announcement that Senator Foraker and Boss Cox of Ohio will support Secretary Taft for the republican nomination for president clearly foreshadows Taft's nomination," says the Wall Street Journal. "No other development of the past week was as important as this. It appears to remove the menace of a long and bitter contest for the republican nomination and it therefore reduces to a minimum the burden to business of political agitation.

"If Senator Foraker finds it hopeless to fight against Secretary Taft in his own state, it is fair to infer that the other enemies of President Roosevelt and his administration will discover that it is hopeless to continue any longer the struggle against him. If this be a fair interpretation of last week's news then the question of a third term for Roosevelt is definitely removed as a possibility.

"That determines the retirement of President Roosevelt on March 4, 1909, with the satisfaction and distinction of having as his successor a man of his own cabinet and choice who will continue his policy. The reactionaries who hoped to defeat both Roosevelt and any candidate whom he favored are disappointed, and yet it is probable that there is no other Roosevelt man who could be selected as his successor who would be, on the whole, so acceptable to the great body of the people, including the conservatives as Judge Taft, for he possesses in an eminent degree the judicial temperament.

"He is a man who delights to do things and yet generally does them with the least amount of friction. If the presidential election is settled a year in advance, Wall street has every reason to rejoice."

That is not only a strong but a significant endorsement, for it means that the Empire state, as well as Ohio, will be found in the Taft column. The campaign, of course, is a long way ahead, but there are a number of western states so thoroughly in sympathy with President Roosevelt, that they are ready to endorse his candidate for the presidency, and there is no longer any doubt concerning who this candidate is.

Taft is strong in himself, and as the people come to know him better they will be fully convinced that the President has made no mistake.

The council can afford to use judgment and common sense in dealing with the sidewalk question. While the standard width is five feet, there are hundreds of lots on side streets, and in outlying districts, where a walk is seldom used, and a three- or four-foot width is just as good as a five. Taxpayers, on this kind of property, are entitled to some consideration, and should receive it.

Why don't the highway committee make arrangements with the Knickerbocker company for material for street building. The plant is handy to the city, and the gravel the best in the land. Every load of rubbish, such as is now being used for top dressing, is a waste of time and money, and every street where it is used, furnishes ample proof of the statement. It is time to commence to do things right.

Public sympathy seems to be with Dietz, of Thornapple dam face. The district attorney is finding it difficult to secure 100 men to act as a posse for Dietz's capture. Only 25 responded to the call. It looks from a distance as though the lumber company might better have compromised long ago.

Continued cold weather, and unfavorable reports from the wheat belt, are the cause for the sudden advance in this staple cereal. Wheat has been lower in proportion than any other farm product, for a number of years. Its advance today will add to the cost of living, materially, as bread continues to be the staff of life.

Corey, the steel magnate, and his six-million-dollar bride sailed away this morning for a three months' honeymoon abroad. The marriage was solemnized at a few minutes after midnight to escape from the unlucky star of the 13th. Mrs. Corey, number one, is sojourning in Florida.

The Ohio love feast has been indefinitely postponed, but the state will be all right for Taft when the time comes. There is too much state pride to turn down a presidential candidate of Taft's dimensions.

Now who do you think will be senator? The proposition is so simple that most any one ought to be able to guess.

Interpreting the Homestead Law.
An Irishman, wishing to take a "homestead," and not knowing just how to go about it, sought information from a friend.

"Mike," he said, "You've taken a homestead, an' I thought maybe ye could tell me the law concerning how to go about it."

"Well, Dennis, I don't remember the exact wordin' uv th' law, but I can give ye th' main'n uv it. Th' main'n uv it is this: The government is willin' t' bet ya 100 acres uv land agin $14 that ye can't live on it five years without starvin' to death."—Rochester Herald.

Pure Moonshine.
A mountaineer of one of the back counties arraigned with several others for illicit distilling. "Defendant," asked the court, "what is your name?"

"Joshua," was the reply.

"Are you the man who made the sun stand still?"

Quick as a flash came the answer. "No, sir; I am the man who made the moonshine."—Harper's Weekly.

On the Road.
Mrs. Spender—My husband has a race horse, an auto, a yacht, and I suppose the next thing he'll have a balloon.
Golde Bonds—Yes; I guess he'll go up all right if he keeps on.—Brooklyn Eagle.SECRET OF GOOD MANNERS.
Chiefly a Combination of Good Sense and Good Nature.

A friend of yours and mine has very justly defined good breeding to be "the result of much good sense, good nature and a little self-denial for the sake of others, and with a view to obtain the same indulgence from them." Taking this for granted—as I think it cannot be disputed—it is astonishing to me that anybody who has good sense and good nature can essentially fail in good breeding. As to the modes of it, indeed, they vary according to persons, places and circumstances and are only acquired by observation and experience, but the substance of it is everywhere and eternally the same. Good manners are to particular societies what good morals are to society in general—their cement and security. And as laws are enacted to enforce good morals or at least to prevent the ill effects of bad ones, so there are certain rules of civility, universally implied and received to enforce good manners; and punish bad ones.—Chesterfield.

FATHER OF THE POOR.
Queer Charity Seen Every Morning Near Paris Markets.

At a certain point of Paris, France, near the Halles there is every morning to be seen an instance for which it would probably be difficult to find many parallels of that benevolence which combines with money expenditures the elements of personal service.

An old gentleman, well dressed, presents himself at an hour now well known to those concerned, and there distributes with his own hands 100 large bowls of soup, which he first tastes himself to see many poor people, who, it need hardly be added, are there waiting for him.

Then he withdraws, walks for some distance, and is taken up in a fine motor car, which whisks him rapidly away. "The Father of the Poor" is the only name which can be given to him.

The Scotch Juror.
In Scotland in a civil case juriesmen get ten shillings a day for their services and the litigants must in addition provide them with lunch. If two cases are tried consecutively and the same juryman officiate, they get ten shillings for each case.

But the most important difference between an English and a Scottish jury is this: An English jury when returning their verdict must be unanimous, and if they fail to agree after a certain length of time they are dismissed and the whole proceedings are begun again de novo before a fresh jury. This is a most expensive mode of administering justice. In civil cases, in order to avoid this result, the litigants sometimes agree to accept the verdict of a majority. In Scotland the jury can always give a verdict by a majority in civil cases after the lapse of three hours.

Didn't Concern Him.
"Sir," the sad-faced man said to the heavy-set man who was smoking a long, black cigar and reading a newspaper, "would you allow your boy to smoke cigarettes when he grows up?"

"I've never given the question a minute's thought," replied the other.

"What! Never pondered upon the effect upon the constitution, to say nothing of the mind of your son, to allow him to smoke the deadly things?"

"Never a thought—no, sir."

"And will you allow him to drink?"

"I have never thought about it."

"Oh, can such things be? Are you letting your child grow up in the midst of temptation without speaking a fatherly word to—"

"Look here, sir! You mean well, I suppose, but let me tell you that I've been a confirmed bachelor for the last 20 years."

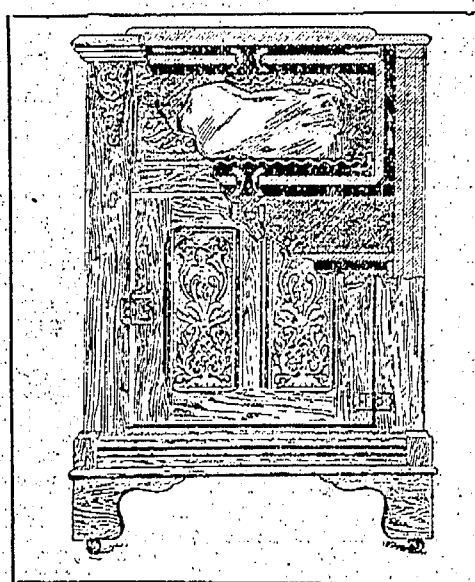

His Lucky Horse Chestnut.
J. G. Simpson, who had been arrested as an alleged bookmaker, tearfully begged Lieut. Wheeler, after he had been released for want of evidence against him, to return a horse chestnut which the lieutenant had taken from him, says the Philadelphia Ledger.

"Please let me have it," he pleaded. "I might just as well try to play the races without money as without that horse chestnut. I can't lose it I carry it." When it was restored to him he seemed more glad to get it back than he was to obtain his discharge from custody.

EVERY COUNCIL IN STATE REPRESENTED BY TWO OR MORE DELEGATES.

RAIN SPOILED AUTO TOUR

Which Had Been Planned and Looked Forward to with Lively Anticipations by Visitors—Morning and Afternoon Sessions.

Knights of Columbus delegates from the twenty-seven councils of Wisconsin, the state officers, the six district deputies, numbering over seventy in all and many of them accompanied by their wives, are here today and Janesville has nothing to be ashamed of—except its weather. Every automobile in running order had been loaned for the excursion about the city this afternoon but the rain compelled the abandonment of this most interesting feature of the entertainment. However, despite the wretched conspiracy of the elements, the visitors are much pleased with the city. Those who come from a distance find it far beyond their expectations in several respects and express their admiration for the handsome office buildings, the hotel accommodations, the public buildings, the ideal location, and the people who inhabit the place.

Reports of Officers

State Deputy John P. Martin of Green Bay presided at the morning session, and State Secretary W. D. McGuire of Baraboo was on hand to perform his duties. Rev. M. J. Naughton of Madison, the state chaplain; John J. Sherman of Appleton, the state treasurer; and Henry Mills of Beloit, the state warden, were all present to deliver their reports. Every council was represented by at least two delegates and visitors and all of the district deputies answered to the roll call. Among the other notable persons present were Past State Deputy Henry J. Killilea and Past State Deputy J. L. O'Connor, both of Milwaukee. Afternoon Session

The visitors are quartered at the Myers and Grand hotels. Little was done this morning beyond receiving the reports of officers and it is stated that no business of special importance beyond the election of officers is anticipated this afternoon. The delegates again convened at 2:30 and listened to the report of the committee on resolutions, after which routine business was taken up. Dinner is to be served at the Hotel Myers at 6:30 and the grand ball at Assembly hall opens at nine o'clock.

Some of the Visitors

Among the visitors are: Thomas H. Ryan and wife and Gustave Kellor of Appleton; B. M. McCarty and wife and Edward Devery of Antigo; A. J. Gallagher and T. J. Boyle of Green Bay; R. C. Ditch of Wausau; F. A. Cannon and L. A. Conway of Milwaukee; H. W. Trister of Sheboygan; W. A. Dyer and H. L. Runt of Kaukauna; M. Fitzsimons, M. L. Reilly, and A. G. Dugan of Fond du Lac; M. Dugan and J. F. O'Connell of Oshkosh; John Molz of Merrill; Martin Gillen, J. Murphy, and James Higgins of Racine; John P. Doherty and W. B. Webber of La Crosse; J. H. Madden and F. L. Dhooge of Ashland; T. W. Moran and A. F. Rock of Superior; Dr. L. E. Kallend and William Ducho of Kenosha; L. J. Evans and Peter Thull, Jr., of Marinette; J. C. Donahoe and Mrs. V. Conlon of Cuba City; Mr. and Mrs. W. D. McGinnis and P. H. Sarhan of Baraboo; United States Marshal John O'Brien of Darlington; W. D. Flanagan of Oberlin, Kansas; J. D. Burns and J. C. Clarke of Beloit.

FAIR GROUNDS HAS BEEN LET FOR YEAR

Henry Wendt Has Closed Negotiations for Schedule of Sunday Baseball Games.

Janesville will have Sunday afternoon baseball games during the summer, despite the several previous failures to make any headway toward the organization of a team and the securing of grounds. Henry Wendt has closed negotiations for the lease of the fair grounds and within the next few days the "Janesville City Baseball team" will be organized with a captain and manager. The aspirants for places on the nine have been practicing during the last few weeks. The season will be opened Sunday, with a game beginning at 3:15 o'clock. The visiting aggregation will be the Madison city team, which played here twice last year. The Janesville battery will probably be Wendt catch and Gus Schmidt pitcher. On Decoration day either the Pecatonica or Belvidere nine will be brought here.

HAYES BROS. ARE PREPARING TO BEGIN WORK IN NEW YARDS

Steam Shovel, Implements, and Working Force Will Be Brought Here From Lockport as Soon as Possible.

"Yes, we have secured the contract for the grading work in the new C. & N. W. assuring yards," said Michael Hayes of the contracting firm of Hayes Bros. this noon. "I went over the ground this morning with R. J. Finley, assistant chief engineer and head engineer in the shop and bridge construction work, this morning. Work is to be commenced all along the line about the same time, and that will be just as soon as we can get the steam shovel and other machinery, the implements and tools and working force on the grounds. Mr. Finley will have his plans out before the end of the week for the shops and bridge work and the contracts for that work will then be let. Our work at Lockport will be finished by the first of August." It is understood from other sources that the work on the double track just south of the Monterey bridge and the widening of the cut under the wagon bridge on the west side of the tracks is also to be commenced at once under the direction of William O'Neill who is in the employ of the Hayes Bros.

Janesville Lady Receives Wrong Grip on Alighting From the Train in City.

Reports that a complete burglar's outfit was found in a grip handed Mrs. E. R. Sholes for her own on alighting from a train in Janesville last Saturday after a shopping trip to Chicago appears to be unfounded. Mrs. Sholes was handed the wrong grip but the contents of the wrong receptacle were evidently those of a miner or some one employed in blasting rocks. An old suit of working clothes, two steel bits and nine dynamite cartridges used in blasting in quarries together with a bottle of whiskey were discovered but the appearance of none of the articles according to City Marshal Appleby deposes that they belonged to a burglar. The railroad officials have been notified and search is being made for Mrs. Sholes' grip.

MAY SUTTON IN FORM

Sensational Woman Tennis Player Wants Championship.

KREIGH COLLINS OF CHICAGO.

The Able Champion of the West Will Again Play at Newport, R. I., in the National Tournament—His Career in Brief.

In a fast and lively game Miss May G. Sutton, the California girl, and her partner, Mrs. J. V. L. Prunty, captured all of the honors the other day in the women's tennis doubles before a large crowd of women on the court of the St. Nicholas club, New York. They defeated Miss Nora Iselin and her partner, Mrs. Burger-Wallach, in straight sets by the score of 6-2, 6-2. This game was the final round, each pair having won in the semifinals.

Miss Sutton again will try to wrest the English title from abroad. After her sweeping victory this announcement was received with enthusiasm.

Two years ago Miss Sutton won the national women's championship at Philadelphia, and in her recent games with leading eastern players she has won repeatedly.

Now that she has regained her old time form it is generally believed that she will again win the English and American championship titles this year. There is no doubt that Miss Sutton is the greatest woman player this country has ever produced.

Miss Sutton, it is thought, will have no difficulty in defeating Helen Homans of New York, the present American woman champion.

Last year at Philadelphia on June 23 Miss Homans won the lawn tennis championship of the United States in singles for 1906, defeating in the final round Mrs. Burger-Wallach of New York and taking the championship by default from Miss Elizabeth H. Moore of Brooklyn.

Miss Sutton did not then play, owing to her presence in England, where she went to defend her title of champion of Great Britain. She was defeated by Miss D. K. Douglas, ex-champion of Great Britain.

Kreigh Collins, the western champion, is looked on as one of the most dangerous competitors who will play in the national championships at Newport, R. I., beginning Aug. 20.

Collins has long been an important factor in American tennis. He is a resident of Chicago and several times has competed in sectional and national championship tournaments in both singles and doubles.

Collins plays carefully and yet strongly. He reminds one greatly of Holcombe Ward, the ex-champion of America in singles and doubles, and has shown gradual improvement of such a nature as to make him a likely player in the finals this year at Newport in singles and a possible captor of the national title.

Last year, at the Kenwood Country club courts at Chicago, Collins again won the western championship, defeating handily in the final match Nat Emerson, winner of the 1905 tournament.

THE ROUNDUP COLUMN.

Johnny Summers, British Feather Champ, Invades America.

Johnny Summers, the British featherweight champion, is the most recent contribution of John Bull to the pugilistic merry-go-round on this side of the Atlantic waters. Like Jack Palmer, Summers has brought with him his trainer, one Mr. Wicks.

"How much ale will Summers drink while he is training?" was asked of Mr. Wicks.

"He!" exclaimed the trainer. "He will talk about 'arf a pint for dinner and about 'arf a pint for supper."

American trainers do not countenance ale or any other alcoholic drink by athletes, but the Britishers insist that it is one of the necessities.

"Will you send him to bed at 8 or 9 o'clock in the evening?"

"Bed?" asked the trainer in some surprise, as if he thought that he was being chaffed. "We go to a music 'all in the evening if there is one near by. It takes a fighter's mind 'off 'is work."

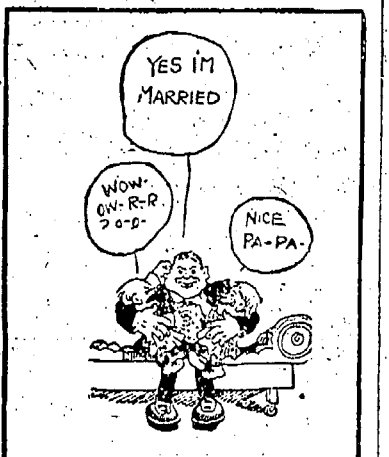

Summers wants a chance at Battling Nelson above all other fighters in the United States. He says that Nelson ran away from him in England. He was rather put down when he read in the morning newspapers that Nelson and Gans were likely to get together in Nevada.

It is likely that Summers will first meet Tommy Murphy of New York.

"Well, we 'ave come 'ere to fight," said he, "and if we don't get Nelson we will try some of the others. As long as we 'ave work it will satisfy us."

Summers is a clean cut, gentlemanly fellow, with a square jaw, a firm chin and an eighteen inch neck. He fights at about 126 pounds, but above the waist he is built like a heavyweight. He has a big arm, a good reach and a girth of chest that makes him look like a much heavier man than he is.

His record is so long that he has forgotten it. He has been in more than 200 fights and has come out victorious in most of them. He has fought as many as fifty times in a year. He is ready to battle at all times, for he is always in condition. At this time he is nine or ten pounds over weight, but that is because he has taken things easily since he started from England.

"'E's 'over weight now," said Mr. Wicks. "I must talk about three-quarters of a stone off him. 'E'll be ready in two weeks."

Wicks explained something of his methods of training by which he will put Summers in condition in two weeks to meet some of the best of the "Yanks," as he calls them.

He and his boxer are up in the morning at 7 o'clock. Before breakfast they take a stroll on a country road—not a run; just a stroll. Then they are back at 8:30 for breakfast, made up of tea and a chop or piece of steak; no coffee. After breakfast has digested they go out for a run of three-quarters of an hour, and they make several miles. They are back for dinner at 12 o'clock.

Then come a bath and a rub down, followed by dinner, made up of more meat, but no tea or coffee. Here, however, is where the ale figures. For the fighter gets his first 'arf pint." Then he takes a nap for a couple of hours. When he awakes, there is about an hour of work in the gymnasium, made up of punching the bag, boxing with his partner, shadow boxing and skipping the rope.

Supper comes on at 5:30, when there is another 'arf pint," but no meat. The supper is rather light and consists largely of vegetables. But bedtime does not follow fast upon the heels of supper, as it does with many American fighters. Wicks is not a hard taskmaster, as may be seen from this schedule. He does not believe in doing too much work. Instead of having his protegee jump into bed just as soon as the sparrows begin to roost he thinks that it is time for them to get out and see things, just as do other workmen. They will visit a theater or a music hall and go to bed at 11 o'clock.

"If we lose any sleep," said the trainer, "we 'ave 'our little nap in the afternoon to make up for it."

BASEBALL TRAINERS.

Valuable Men Who Keep Players in Good Physical Form.

BARDELL AND M'CORMICK.

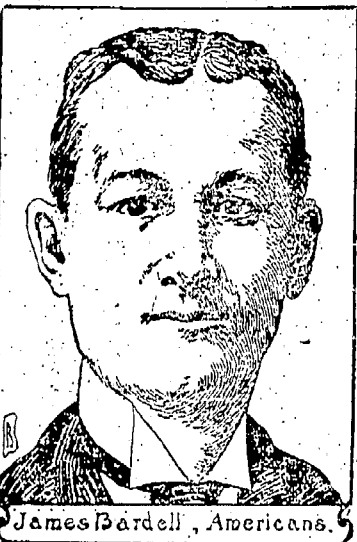

The Two Trainers For Chicago Nationals and Americans Are Experts in Their Line—Both Are Adept in Physical Culture Matters.

There is an individual connected with every major league baseball team that is seldom heard of, and yet his influence is most potent in deciding the fates of candidates for championship pennants. He is the trainer who looks after the physical welfare of the team's members.

The trainer's lot is a most unhappy one in many cases. Ball players are, as a rule, vigorous, full blooded, high spirited lads and men who are difficult to restrain during an entire season of play. They are as fond of prohibited diversions as a schoolboy is of cigarettes. They very frequently, too, indulge in personal encounters with members of their own teams as well as with those of rival organizations, and these the trainer must subdue and smooth over as best he can. Then he has to cure bruises and sprains and 'charley horse' arms and a score of other ailments that fall to the lot of active athletes.

The trainer has to see that the men do not overeat, a task that a lion tamer would rather be excused from, and he has to devise means of exercising the players during practice hours to keep their muscles from becoming stiff after the many long hours on the tins.

Many a game is won, because the trainer has kept his team in good physical condition. In selecting trainers for the two Chicago major league baseball teams it has happened that the managements have chosen men who have been prominent in the wrestling game and also in the boxing game, one as referee and the other as boxer. And both are more or less adept in the gentle art of physical culture, besides being expert masseurs and learned in the art of reducing bruises, sorenesses, contusions, and so on.

Both Professor James Bardell of the world's champion American White Sox and Jack M'Cormick of the National Cubs have completed the preliminary work of preparing their respective bunches of talent for the season, and each incidentally has added to his stock of general and geographical information, having participated in the ante-season journeys of the teams on their training trips.

Bardell made the trip to the City of Mexico with Conmy and his White Sox, and M'Cormick went all the way from West Baden, Ind., to New Orleans and back to Chicago. Now the trainers' sole and simple duties consist in maintaining the men of the two teams in their present good physical shape during the strenuous six months' campaign.

"Dr." Bardell was Johnny on the spot all the way to Mexico and back. He carried his medicine case with him, and when the White Sox were practicing at Reforma park he was ready to minister to the aid and comfort of distressed athletes who might be afflicted temporarily with 'charley horse,' nosebleed, stubbed toes or any other ailments. M'Cormick similarly kept watchful care over his men on the southern trip and during the early games with the minor league teams. Few cases failed to yield to his treatment. Jack himself did a little training, arming himself with a glove and catching flies and stopping hard grounders in the outfield. Yes, he caught a few flies, to the joy of his men and his own considerable satisfaction.

FROM LAKES TO GULF OF MEXICO

CONGRESSMAN BURTON TALKS ON DEEP WATERWAY PROJECTS.

REASONS FOR THE DELAY

The Subject Will Receive Consideration From National Lawmakers in Due Time—Names Four Reasons for Delay.

St. Louis, Mo., May 14.—Congressman Theodore E. Burton, of Ohio, chairman of the national inland waterways commission, who arrived here Monday to accompany the other members of the commission on an inspection trip down the Mississippi river, delivered a speech at the Olympic theater on "Some of the Unsatisfactory Features of Our River and Harbor Policy."

In speaking of the commission's trip down the river Mr. Burton said the members of the commission hoped to consider as one great subject the inland waterways of the country with a view to recommendations relating to navigation, irrigation and development of water power, as well as prevention of floods and the clarification of waters.

Reasons for Delay. At the public meeting at the Olympic theater Chairman Burton dwelt upon some of the unsatisfactory features of the river and harbor policy. He said in part:

"While this proposed improvement has not been condemned by congress and will surely receive the most careful consideration when a complete examination of it had been made by the engineers of the government, there were four conclusive reasons why it was not adopted last winter.

"The first was that while many proposed improvements of rivers and harbors of undoubted merit had been pending for years, which had not been adopted or completed, though the cost was comparatively small, this waterway, costing $31,000,000, was urged for adoption after only a few weeks, or, at the most, months of active agitation on its behalf.

"The second objection was a hard and fast rule by the river and harbor committee to place in a river and harbor bill no appropriations for harbors or channels now recommended by a board of review created in 1902, made up of expert engineers. The proposed waterway was adversely reported by this board.

Want to Know Cost. "The third objection was that while it was in contemplation to provide a waterway 14 feet in depth from Chicago to the Gulf, only that portion between St. Louis and Chicago had been surveyed and it would be injudicious to proceed with the construction of a part without knowledge of the cost and probable utility of the remaining portion between St. Louis and the Gulf.

"The fourth objection was the fact as stated by the governor of Illinois in his message, that the construction of this waterway would develop a water power worth three millions a year and would aid in the drainage or reclamation of 300,000 acres of land."

Mr. Burton said a government engineer had reported that whoever enjoyed this water power could afford to build that section between St. Louis and Chicago.

Valuable Plant Nearly Destroyed. Wheeling, W. Va., May 14.—After consuming the warehouse of the Acma Standard mill of the United States Steel corporation at Bridgeport, O., Monday, fire which had got beyond control of the firemen and threatened complete destruction to the $2,000,000 plant of the concern, was subdued when a fortunate change of the wind blew the flames toward an open field. The loss is estimated at $25,000.

Old Resident Dead. Winona, Minn., May 13.—John A. Mathews, 83 years old, wealthy pioneer, died, of pneumonia, after an illness of two hours. He served four terms as mayor of Winona.

CONDITION OF SHRINERS. Several Injured in Wreck Are Reported Improving.

San Luis Obispo, Cal., May 14.—All of those injured in the Honda wreck are improving except Brakeman R. Fountain, whose back was severely injured and whose lower limbs were partly scalped.

W. H. Boyd, of Reading, Pa., was terribly scalded, but will recover. Martin L. Henry, of Shamokin, Pa., whose spine was injured, will recover.

H. H. Lee, of Orwigsburg, Pa., who suffered lacerations of face and a fractured leg, is doing well after being operated on Sunday.

J. Logan, fractured leg and three ribs broken, has an excellent chance for recovery.

Mrs. Fred Grumond, of Binghampton, N. Y., ankle broken and numerous bruises, is improving.

A. W. Rappole, of Bennis Point, N. Y., back and limbs injured, was able to sit up Monday morning. Mrs. Rappole's injuries were slight, consisting of numerous bruises.

Charles McKinney and wife of Binghamton, N. Y., who were badly injured, are able to get around.

H. A. Hartzell, of Easton, Pa., severely scalded and leg broken, will recover. Mrs. Harrison B. Hendle and her daughter Helen, of Reading, Pa., are recovering from their slight injuries. Mr. Hendle was killed in the wreck.

Shredded Wheat

No "premiums" for dealers, no "prizes" for children, no money for jingles—just clean, steam-cooked whole wheat drawn out into porous shreds and baked. Contains the greatest amount of muscle-making material for the least money. Always the same, always right.

For breakfast heat the Biscuit in oven to restore crispness, pour hot milk over it; add a little cream and a little salt; or, sweeten to taste. Shredded Wheat is also delicious and wholesome for any meal in combination with fresh or preserved fruits. At your grocers.

Then Milton braced up and played the game without any more stage fright. Pitcher Place had a lame arm and could not use much speed, which fact gave Ripon most of their hits. Struck out by Place, 11; struck out by Beyer, 5; bases on balls off Beyer, 4; bases on balls off Place, 1; hits, Milton—9, Ripon—10. Milton boys did good work at the bat and several two- and three-base hits were pounded out.

The Critics Confounded.

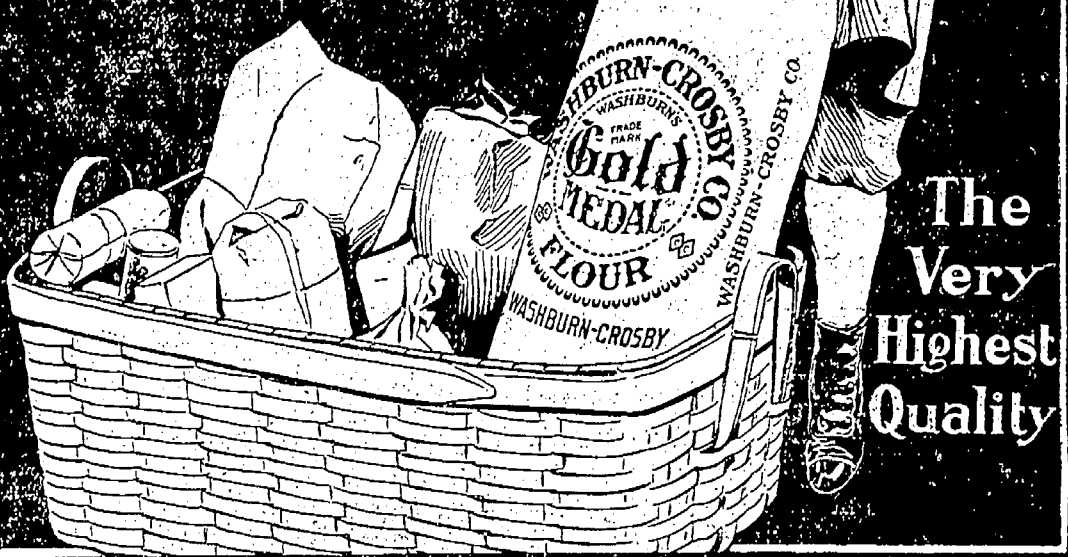

"There," said the poet when he had completed his improved incubator, "I'd like to see the critic who can prove after this that I have no creative genius."

Before the Telegraph.

When the Indian mutiny broke out in 1857, it is related that the order to revolt was carried in the form of an unleavened cake, or chapatti. Swift running camels have always been used in the east to carry dispatches, while beacon fires still remain a vehicle for conveying intelligence.

HIS DUTY AS HE SAW IT.

Had Been Told to Carry Out the Provisions, and He Wanted Them.

The widow of a village grocer was industriously placing the large, rose-cheeked apples on the top of the diminutive shrivelled ones in the barrel when Farmer Giles entered the establishment, according to the Rochester Herald. "I want that tub o' butter," he said, "an' those hams, and that lot o' sugar, and—?" The shopkeeper rubbed her hands together with delight. "Yes, sir," she beamed, "delighted to serve you, I'm sure. And what else may I supply you with?" "Well," went on Mr. Giles, "there's all them bottles of tomato sauce, and them boxes o' biscuits an' an' all that other stuff," he concluded, vaguely, sweeping his hand around the shop. "Good gracious!" exclaimed the widow, now rather alarmed, "whatever do you want with all them goods?" "I dunno, I'm sure," was the farmer's puzzled reply, but I'm the executor of your late husband's will, an' the lawyer's just told me it's my duty to carry out the provisions. So come on, I've got three carts waitin' outside!"

Not a Reading Community.

The town of Charleoi, Pa., has a Carnegie library in which there are several thousand volumes, and the town is proudly taxed to support the institution. Last year, according to a report by the librarian just made public, there was one solitary patron of the library. The librarian expressed the opinion that the people of the town were so much interested in roller skating, baseball games, bridge whist and poker that they had no time for books.

"ON TO VICTORY"

It took strong as well as brave men to face the disease and heat of the South during the Civil War, and the men knew it, but some knew that the way to avoid it was to prepare their system for the ordeal.
